

Seeking Endorsement for Culture Connects Us Documentary

Dear Fellow Humanitarian,

We are Village-Connect, Inc., a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization based in San Leandro, California.

We believe that your support could significantly impact our upcoming animated documentary film, Culture Connects Us. Thus, we would like for you to consider endorsing the film for a small fee. This fee will help us underwrite post production expenses and submit the documentary to film festivals.

Culture Connects Us aims to explore the rich tapestry of human experiences across different cultures. Through captivating storytelling, we hope to foster understanding, empathy, and appreciation for our shared humanity. The film features interviews with diverse individuals, highlighting their unique perspectives, traditions, and viewpoints. Click here to view the trailer.

Why We Need Your Endorsement:

1. Visibility: Your endorsement would lend credibility to our project and increase visibility. As a respected entity, your support would resonate with our audience.
2. Advocacy: By endorsing Culture Connects Us, you advocate for cross-cultural dialogue and promote unity. Your voice can inspire others to engage with our film and its message.
3. Impact: We anticipate that the film will be screened at international festivals, educational institutions, and community events. Your endorsement would amplify our reach and impact.

Endorsement Benefits

1. Endorsement Statement (OPTIONAL): You can write an endorsement statement that you can be included at our website with a link to your website. This could be a sentence expressing your enthusiasm for the film or highlighting its importance.
2. We will post your statement on our social media platforms and in our newsletter, The Village Voice.
